BLIPS

Four in one...

The client request: a multiuse pool pavilion with a small footprint that provides shade from East Hampton's summer sun. Andrew Wilkinson Architects responded with an 80-square-foot structure offering not only a slatted canopy for respite from the rays but also a white cedar-lined restroom and changing room and an outdoor shower.

"It really reflects the warmth of the house," Andrew Wilkinson says, referencing the pavilion's stained cedar siding, which coordinates with the residence's shingles.
